An Early College High School Model for Pittsburgh

Bismaad Minhas, Caitlin Blair, Deme Yoo, Iman Mouzlam, Tyler Gund

Fall 2016

This document was completed as part of a Systems Synthesis Project at Carnegie Mellon University's Heinz College. A team of five second-year MSPPM and MAM students worked on this project in the Fall of 2016. This project was commissioned by the Pittsburgh Promise to look into the feasibility and design of an early-college high school model for Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh Public Schools did not commission, participate in, endorse or contribute to the development of this plan. The Systems Team utilized resources including publicly available information, interviews with key stakeholders, secondary sources, and information from the Pittsburgh Promise in the formulation of this document. Assumptions have been made and documented in each section. This document is meant to serve as a tool-kit to for a future project team and as such, these documents have been marked as draft. For any questions, contact Sam Franklin at sfrankli@andrew.cmu.edu.
